General and Revenue Secretariat | File No. 24 | App. F. III—2] of 1929

Serial No.

Letter no. SPF 26 D 27.5.1929 from the Comptroller suggesting the insertion of a note to rule 9(6) of the State Provident Fund Rules.

While bringing about a working rule recently for the final closing of the Provident Fund Accounts (vide file placed) the Comptroller's suggestion that persons so allowed to finally close their accounts may not be permitted to rejoin the Fund was also approved. The Comptroller now suggests a note being inserted to that effect under rule 9(5) of the State Provident Fund Rules.

Under the above rule 9(5) the Comptroller is authorised to close finally the Provident Fund accounts which have been in existence for short periods. The Comptroller has now suggested that even such Subscribers whose accounts he can close cannot rejoin the Fund. It is for orders whether it is the intention of Govt. to prohibit such Subscribers also from rejoining the Fund or whether the prohibition may be made applicable only in the case of such Subscribers whose accounts have existed for a pretty long time and which are closed
